~~~~~~ Do You Want to he Plump? If you are thin and want to put on flesh, breakfast and supper have something lahing and savory, plain brown bread to stance, the silces browned in fresh butter potatoes to be eaten with undeniable creor rich gravy, which is flesh-forming to and you may indulge in made dishes as yo please, provided they are well made. All thin people wishing to grow plump should begin with simple, easily digested fare, almost as if they were invalids. Fresh raw eves, beaten with port wine or sherry, or with orange juice, or two or three drops of oil of cinnamen in a teaspoonful of brandy are very nourishing, and give strength to the digestion, so that stronger food can be attacked. If care is taken to select very digestible food, it is true that the more one cats the more he can cat, and the system may thus be led into vigor and flesh. Cover Harschair with Cretains.

An old horsehnir sofa that had seen its best days was transformed by clever fingers by has not a much better prospect of long life cord around the edge. The bed itself was sawing off the tack and converting the seat than a married man of 45; that among wid-gilled, and had embroidered panels inserted into a presentable divan. This was accome sawing off the back and converting the seat plished by replacing the horsehair with a serve harmonious, handsome and effective pretty wild-rose cretonne and covering large spread, the coloring being made to match square pillows with the same material. The some Empire brocade used for the hangings. hair which was pulled from the discarded
